Dear Parent/Guardian,

Hosted by the Germantown First Church of God, and working with other community churches, Sonshine in a Bag is offering bags of food for school aged children in the Germantown community.

In order for your child(ren) to participate, we must have your permission to provide this food to your student(s) through their school. Please sign and return this form to your school office or to the Germantown First Church of God office as soon as possible.

Please list each student's name for whom you are requesting food. Each child will receive 1 bag of food.
